Almighty Father,

We give thanks for the friendships in our lives and are grateful for all the positive things they bring.

Our lives are not meant to be lived alone, so we are grateful for the people who walk alongside us, supporting us, loving us, and encouraging us in good times and in bad.

Help us to be more aware and gracious to our friends, appreciating them and accepting their help.

Help us to be a better friends, too, supporting, loving, and encouraging others.

Lord help me to be a good friend in all that I do. Shower our friends with your blessings that they might know how much you love them.

Help us to work together in teams, reminding us that we are stronger together.

Amen.
